

We love having the no call law that Wi has. Before the phone was ringing ALL the time. There wasn't always any live person on the line or coming on the line- it was just a computer randomly dialing up numbers. I wish we didn't let charities call- THAT is bad enough. I would never want to even start back towards what we had.